PAUL F. ENO

With nearly 40 years of experience, Paul F. Eno is one of the most respected paranormal investigators in the world. A graduate of two seminaries and holder of a rare Ph.D degree in philosophy, Paul has been called "the most intelligent voice in paranormal research today." Paul is a prize-winning New England journalist and former news editor at the Providence Journal. He is the author of seven books, including the critically acclaimed classic Footsteps in the Attic (2002) and the groundbreaking Turning Home: God, Ghosts and Human Destiny (2006). His mind-wrenching experiences, unique theories and ultimate message of hope have captivated and moved audiences all over America and in Europe. Two programs are available. Programs usually last two hours but can be modified for your needs. Events are free as long as New River Press can sell books.

1. THE BEST OF 'BEHIND THE PARANORMAL'

Paul and his teenaged son and co-host, Ben, take the audience through the best moments with some of the most exciting guests on their acclaimed radio show, including UFO expert Stanton Friedman, paranormal "Renaissance Man" and Hollywood insider Murray Silver, and renowned theoretical physicist Fred Alan Wolf (as seen in *What the Bleep Do We Know?*) along with some of the most mind-stretching cases that have come up on the show. PowerPoint presentation included. Covers ghosts, UFOs, Bigfoot, other paranormal phenomena and their implications for our understanding of ourselves and the world..

2. A PARANORMAL EVENING

Follow Paul Eno through nearly four decades of paranormal research from the inside, and stand by his side during some of the most famous and dramatic hauntings of the late 20th century. Also journey through his more recent work with his teenaged son and understudy, Ben. Includes a PowerPoint presentation people will never forget.
